LENGTH OF THE CHICAGO WOMEN'S HATPIN City Council Gives Up Attempt at Present to Regulate It.

 Chicago, March 14.—The city council of Chicago tonight decided it would be inexpedient to attempt at present to regulate the length of women's hatpins by law. by law.

New Haven, Conn., March 14.—The members of the adjustment committee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Order of Railway Conductors tonight received from General Manager Higgins of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad a letter containing an answer to their demands for a readjustment of the wage schedule, and while the contents was not made by law.

An ordinance drawn up by the corporation counsel's office and imposing a penalty of $50 on any woman caught wearing a hatpin which extended more than one-half of an inch beyond the crown of the hat was reported to the council. It had the endorsement of the judiciary committee, which a week ago gave a public hearing on the hatpin question.

Scores of women who had argued while the contents was not made known, members of the committee said it was very unsatisfactory from their standpoint. Following the receipt of the communication from Mr. Higgins a meeting of the board and the national officers was held, at which a reply was framed to be presented tomorrow.

Scores of women who had argued that hatpins were women's only means of defense when going home on dark nights filled the galieries tonight when the measure came up.

"Now, gentlemen," said Alderman Bauler, "this long hatpin nuisance has been thoroughly threshed out and we are all agreed that it shall stop."

"Shame! shame!" came a female OF BISHOP-ELECT NILAN Of the Hartford Diocese in the Ca-

THERE WILL BE NO STRIKE. Says President Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America.

Cincinnati, March 14.—Contrary to expectations, the special committee of the United Mine Workers of America will organize tomorrow without anything definite in view. This state of affairs has been brought about by the inability of the sub-committee of the joint conference of the miners and operators of Ohio, Indiana and western Pennsylvania, to agree regarding the wage scale for the coming two years. As a result the national convention will organize, hear a greeting of welcome from Mayor Schwab and adjourn subject to the call of the chairman, which will be issued when the scale committee of the joint conference gets reads to report.

Nothing that even tends toward an agreement has been reached by the scale committee.

In speaking of conditions tonight, President Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America said: "I am still convinced that there will be po strike and that the miners' demands will be granted."

Wearisbme Trip of 1,300 Miles.

A launch carryin— the representatives of the governor general of Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, Major General Sir Francis Roginald Wingate, sirdar of the Egyptian army, met the steamer Dal up the river. On this small craft Colonel Roosevelt and the members of his party had voyaged for more than 1,300 miles from Gondokoro in Ughandi, where they embarked on February 28. It was a wearisome trip, for there was little to be seen, and the latter part of the voyage was exceedingly uninteresting, the river sometimes being a mile and a half wide, with mud flats on either side, where only crocodiles abound, and towards the end Colonel Roosevelt displayed considerable anxiety to be ashore.

Although the ex-president has refused to grant an interview or give out a statement on pubble questions until he is in possession of the fullest information on all points, he realizes he says that he has before him a Wearisome Trip of 1,300 Miles.
